

De Montfort Students' Union (DSU)

Get involved with De Montfort Students' Union and you could gain skills, meet friends and build a reputation that could last a lifetime. You will have the chance to vote for Union representatives, or even run for one of the positions on the students executive team yourself. You can even take advantage of the Union's support and advice services.

The Union

DSU is on the first floor of the Campus Centre. You can get something to eat, grab a drink with friends, take part in quizzes, see comedians, watch chart topping acts like JLS live onstage, or dance to sets from some of the best DJs, like BBC Radio's Jo Whiley and Scott Mills.

Clubs and Societies

There are many clubs and societies to choose from, whether you want to play for a team, join other international students or theatre lovers, or just share your passion for religion, rock music or martial arts, you'll find something here for you.

Demon Media

You can start your journalistic career right here through the award winning Demon Media.

- ☐ The Demon: The DSU fortnightly student newspaper
- ☐ Demon FM: Student radio station
- ☐ Demon TV: Student TV station available in some halls

Support

The union offers support if you have any problems. The Welfare and Education Centre can help with difficult landlords, immigration or any other problems you encounter during your course.

The Union supports student representatives and the Student Executive Team, who you can elect to represent you either on your course or at DMU.

National Union of Students

As a member of DSU, you also become a member of the NUS. All activities are supported nationally by the NUS, and your NUS card gives you discounts at high street stores such as Topshop, Burton and HMV, as well as a number of pubs, clubs, cinemas and theatres in Leicester.

Visit the DSU website, for all the latest news, copies of the Demon, and more detailed information on all the available services.
