

GROUP 'C' DISCIPLINE SPECIFIC COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

Courses in this group are compulsory depending on your discipline. Compulsory courses must be completed within 24 months of enrolment if you are a full-time student and within 48 months of enrolment if you are a part-time student.

To reserve a place on these courses please contact your relevant Faculty Office or Research Centre, unless otherwise stated.

Faculty of Art and Design

---

Research Seminars 1 - including Papers (REST7032)

---

Course Description:

These COMPULSORY seminars will have varied research content from invited guest speakers and will also look at how to write and present papers.

Exemptions

Requests for exemption will be considered.

Faculty of Humanities

---

Research Methods - Communication (REST7061)

---

Course Description:

The session will include the following sections:

- identification of appropriate topics for conference papers,
- preparation of proposals/abstracts,
- argumentation and communication in conference papers,
- presentation and delivery.

These sessions will address issues of research, communication and delivery, preparing students for the Faculty Conference. Students will be expected to present a paper at the Faculty Conference and will receive written feedback on the paper and its delivery.

This session will run once during the academic year in Term 2.

Exemptions

Exemptions based on prior experience and learning will be considered. Students should contact the Faculty to obtain an exemption form and to discuss with their first supervisor.